RE: NOTICE OF VIOLATION AND DEMAND TO CEASE AND DESIST: Fielding of Non-Participating Personnel, Matter No. SHADY-2026-001.01

Dear Mr. Morehouse:

This office has received credible reports, and has independently verified, that your franchise has engaged in a sustained pattern of acquiring and starting injured players with no reasonable expectation of playing a snap. This includes, but is not limited to, Xavier Legette (IR) and Jalen McMillan (IR), each projected for a combined total of 0.00 points. This office believes the conduct is designed to suppress your Potential Points and secure the 2027 1.01 by improper means.

I-A. Exhibit A: Recent Free-Agent Acquisitions

On October 21, 2026 alone, your franchise added the following players from free agency. Every one of them is unable to play:

Player	Status	% Rostered (Sleeper dynasty)
Jake Bobo, WR, SEA	IR	2.0%
Chris Collier, RB, LV	IR	<1%*
Cole Burgess, WR, no NFL team	IR	<1%*
Dillon Gabriel, QB, CLE	IR	17.9%
Mason Tipton, WR, NO	PUP	1.4%

* Too rarely rostered for Sleeper to report a percentage.

Your roster also carries David Njoku (IR), James Conner (IR), Skyy Moore (IR) and Alec Pierce (IR). These are not injured stars stashed for their upside. Four of the five are on fewer than 3% of dynasty rosters, so the rest of the fantasy world sees no value in them. This office does not believe a franchise can acquire five unavailable players with no upside in one day by accident.

I. Applicable Bylaws

Your conduct violates the following provisions of the SHADYNASTY League Bylaws:

> § Lineups: "Each team must start players who are reasonably expected to play at least one snap in an NFL game that week."
>
> § Lineups: "Each owner is expected to make an honest attempt at starting their most optimal valid lineup for each week of the season."
>
> § Tanking: Draft order is determined by Potential Points "to assess true value/quality of teams."
>
> § Commissioner: "The commissioner reserves the right to protect the integrity of the league, especially in cases of collusion, cheating, or intentional sabotage of the league."

Please note that an empty bench does not excuse noncompliance. A roster built so that no valid lineup is possible is itself a violation.

II. Demand

You are hereby directed, beginning Week 7 and continuing for the remainder of the 2026 season, to:

1. Start only players who are reasonably expected to play, and add healthy free agents as needed to do so;
2. Stop acquiring injured players for the purpose of lowering Potential Points; and
3. Acknowledge receipt of this notice in the league chat by kickoff of the Thursday night game.

III. Consequences of Noncompliance

Under the Owner Responsibilities penalty schedule, this letter constitutes your formal First Offense Warning. Further violations may result in forfeiture of your earliest owned rookie pick (yes, that one) and all prize winnings for the season, and, for extremely severe incidents, removal from the league.

The League Office notes that tanking is a time-honored dynasty tradition. Tanking by putting sentient injury reports in your starting lineup, however, is not.

Govern yourself accordingly.

Respectfully,

Brett Wilson

Brett Wilson, Co-Commissioner
SHADYNASTY League Office
